House Event Year 7 & 8 Creative Characters

- In English, we have been learning about heroic and villainous characters, like Oliver, Bill Sykes and Fagin in Year 7, or the more dual-natured hero Holmes and ambiguous villains Irene Adler and John Clay in Year 8.
- Now, it's your turn!
- Our House Competition this term is for you to create your own character. It can be a hero, a villain- or even both! You can go for the innocent hero, or mean and moody, violent villain, like a budding Dickens, or you can create a more complex, dual-natured character, like Arthur Conan Doyle. The choice is yours!
- You can also choose the format of your creative character competition entry. It could be a piece of writing, but doesn't have to be. You could create a cartoon, a labelled illustration, make a model, write a song, rap or poem about them... the possibilities allow you to show your creativity at it's best!
- Ask your English teacher if you need any further help or advice. Now it's over to you! Competition closes Friday 15th December.
